Foreword

In 1939, the first yearbook was published by the Vocational High School for Girls. Today as through the years another First Lady is presented.

Two milestones in Whitney history are the twenty-fifth volume of First Lady and the graduation of the Class of 1966. Two years, 1944 and 1945, were missed during World War II.

This anniversary of First Lady marks a quarter of a century of hard work and some achievement.

Graduation is the other important event here commemorated. This day we leave friends and teachers to go into the world and establish our own lives.

These may be our greatest days so cherish them.

To Irene,
a real sweet girl. Good luck always. It's been fun knowing you.
God bless ya.

Love ya.

Dedication

A spark to create a fire within,

an inspiration to strive for the best,
a friend to understand,
a guide to lead in the right direction—
is Alvin C. Bippus.

It is hard to believe that each honored senior, cheery junior, wondering sophomore is an individual; but with Mr. Bippus's concern for the Whitney family, we truly are individuals.

This is why the Class of 1966 dedicates our yearbook to him.

Mr. Alvin C. Bippus

MR. WALTER ARDNER
Acting Principal

Sincere congratulations on the twenty-fifth edition of the yearbook, First Lady. The editors and staffs of preceding annuals have done excellent work in preserving cherished highlights of yesteryears at Whitney. The composition of the 1966 book upholds the traditions of those of the past. This volume will be treasured now and even more in the future.

Those in the graduating class have acquired the necessary skills in their chosen vocations to begin adult lives as useful members in a competitive society. Your aims and ambitions will determine the degrees of your future success. Whitney trained graduates have proved themselves to be worthy and well qualified for business and industry. Keep this fine heritage.

May health, happiness, and success be yours.

It was a beautiful day of Indian Summer. The sun was warm and lazy. Leaves of red and gold hung on the trees. I drove down the highway, watching the beauty around me, scarcely aware of the flashing milestones.

As I drove on, the numbers became more noticeable, began to take an interest. One hundred eighty-seven; one hundred eighty-six; eighty-five; —four! What did they measure? Where did they start? Where did they end? What do milestones mean?

I thought of home, school, work, all starting places. I thought of the numbers going down, down, as I neared my destination. I thought how fortunate I was that skillful people engineered the road, marking so clearly the way.

Then I knew what the milestones meant. Others have charted the course for me to follow safely. I can travel the highway because others have gone before me. I can choose my destination because of others.

All of us who are part of Whitney travel together, depending on each other, toward our goals. We rejoice together as we pass each new milestone.

—Susannah West

Twenty five years—twenty five First Ladies telling the accomplishments, growth, successes of Whitney as graduates make their contributions to the community and add honor to their alma mater. Graduation Day 1966 marks the passing of your first milestone, preparation. Where will 1991 find you? Oliver Wendell Holmes said, "The great thing in the world is not so much where we stand, as in what direction we are moving." Best wishes for happiness.

—Cleona Chetister

Gone But Not Forgotten

To Irene, a really wonderful girl.
 It was really a riot coming with you & Marge on the Senior Trip. Too bad
 I haven't seen too much of you this year.
 Maybe during the summer. I'll see you at the "Y" or somewhere. Best of Luck Always

Lull.

It's been almost a year since we've met and a lot of things have happened. On the way from the Beatles to David McCullum and the man from U.W. E. (Tom) I've been doing things together and I hope we can meet again some time. That Senior year was a lot of fun and it was worth it.

Now it's finally the end of our long "prison" sentence and pretty soon we will be set "free". (Hoping) since you've got a telephone we'll be able to keep in touch with each other better. Although the weekends will be the only time we can get together for some fun, fun, fun.

I hope you will have all your dreams and wishes come true and (the heck with Wayne.) Work hard and behave yourself !!!

Bye for now,
Marge Bernhard

RESERVED FOR GLORIA

Irene,

Now you have finally finished your education. How does it feel? Good, I know! Now you start on another journey of life. You've got a good job. You should work hard and try to better yourself and save your money now because if you ever get married you never have a chance to save because there is always some bill staring you in the face needing to be paid.

Well I wish you the best of luck and happiness in the future and the same from Jim & the kids.
your ever lovin' sister Gloria

To Irene,

Boy, we sure have had some times together haven't we? Both good and bad. Especially silly times at work together. It was nice though. I sure hope you are successful in life. We'll probably see each other quite a bit. (How can I avoid you??). Well, be a good kid.

Good luck.

Sharon-Swanicki

Irene,

We blew three years already. Just like that it went by. Now that you have a phone it will be easier to get a hold of you. You'll have to come over and bring your records. It's been a blast.
